HERITAGE CULTURE ART AND EDUCATION DEVELOPMENT SOCIETY

About HCAEDS

HCAEDS is registered non-government, voluntary development organization operational in the Konkan region of Maharashtra with its headquarter at Lanja, District Ratnagiri for more than 17years promoting development related programmes and activities focussing rural and tribal women, children, youth and farmers. It has continuously addressed social, economic, health, culture and education related issues of women, landless labourers and marginal farmers.

In our efforts to reach the poor and marginalized children, adolescent boys and girls through educational interventions we have found out that they require more facilities and services for their all round development. They require career guidance and contact center, vocational/ livelihood education, values education, rights education, education to environment and ecology, education to peace and communal harmony, etc. The adolescent girls especially require education to reproductive health and hygiene, self-defense, legal rights, etc.

HCAEDS is committed to initiate programmed and activities focusing children and adolescent boys and girls through their active involvement and participation.
